

23rd February 2021

I can improve sentences using better adjectives, adverbs, openers and brackets.

I can improve sentences using similes, alliteration, interesting verbs and some higher level punctuation.

I can improve sentences using adventurous language, personification and a range of higher level punctuation.

How can you improve a sentence?

The horse ran when the knight pulled on the reins.

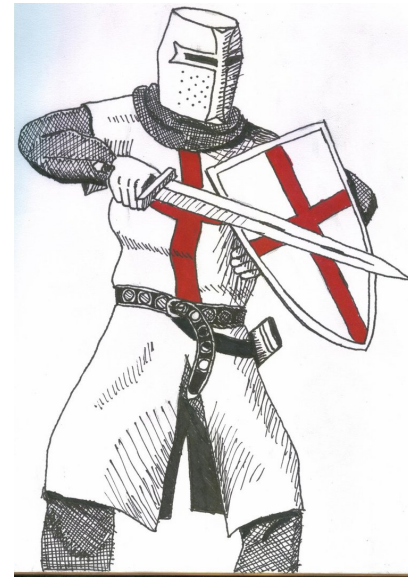

The lance broke into pieces.

The knights of Camelot

Write as many adjectives as possible to describe a knight.

The knights of Camelot

brave

honour

muscular

warrior

talented loyal

fearless

chivalrous

selfless

On the next slide is a range of sentences. Your task is to improve each sentence in a variety of ways.

DO NOT DO THIS:

The horse was running.

The brown horse was running.

Think about adjectives,
adverbs, similes,
personification, alliteration,
punctuation, interesting
verbs, openers etc.

The knights of Camelot rode towards the castle.

Arthur was a brave warrior.

Adjectives, adverbs, better openers and ()

King Uther hated magic.

Similes, alliteration, interesting verbs and ; - - Personification :

Merlin was a powerful wizard.

Sir Lancelot rescued Guinevere.