

7th January 2021

I can add colons to given sentences.

I can write sentences for colons in lists and complete sentences with colons separating clauses.

I can write my own sentences that show colons in lists and to separate clauses.

Quick recap

Narrative

Present tense

Flashbacks

Past tense

Colons in lists

To bake a cake you will need: flour, eggs, sugar and margarine.

Bring some equipment: boots, rucksack and a map.

Colons to separate clauses

When a main clause is explained by the next clause.

The weather was dreadful: it rained all day.

They know her secret: she is obsessed with socks.

Everything was quiet school hadn't started yet.

Tim had lots of lessons at school science, art and PE.

Rewrite the given sentences into your book and add colons in the correct place.

Complete the sentence given for colons with clauses.

Make your own two sentences for lists.

Create your own sentences for both (three of each).

The children were shivering

Nothing made sense

Harry bought a new coat

You must wear a seatbelt when in a vehicle

