

Around 9 million people living in London	Hills and mountains	Most buildings made from wattle and daub
Farms	Horses and carriages as the main form of transport	A population of around 56 million people
Signs instead of words over shop doors	Rivers	Shops
Beaches	Cars, trains and buses	Shillings, sovereigns and crowns
Power stations	Quarter of a million people living in London	Cliffs
A population of 2 - 4 million people	Skyscrapers	Electric street lights
Roads	Very few large towns and cities	Libraries
More people living in urban than rural areas	Man-made lakes and reservoirs	More people living in rural than urban areas