

The Battle of Bosworth Field

Richard III is King of England and has a large army.	Henry Tudor is an exiled nobleman and doesn't have a large army.	They fight!	Henry looks like he is winning!
Richard III sees Henry isolated and thinks he can end the battle by killing him.	Oh no! Lord Stanley's men decide to switch sides and fight for Henry.	Richard's horse gets stuck in marshland and he's killed.	Henry is crowned king!
