

Why do you think these four animals are in the boat?

What do they have in common?

Where could they be going?

For what reason?

Why would you leave your home?

Let's listen to the story and find out the answer to some of those questions.

W.A.L.T: I can write in role.

I can infer (work something out from the text).

W.I.L.F

- * I can write in role (in another character's shoes).
I can think carefully about how the character might feel.
-  I can use interesting vocabulary to add extra detail.

Imagine that you are the panda.

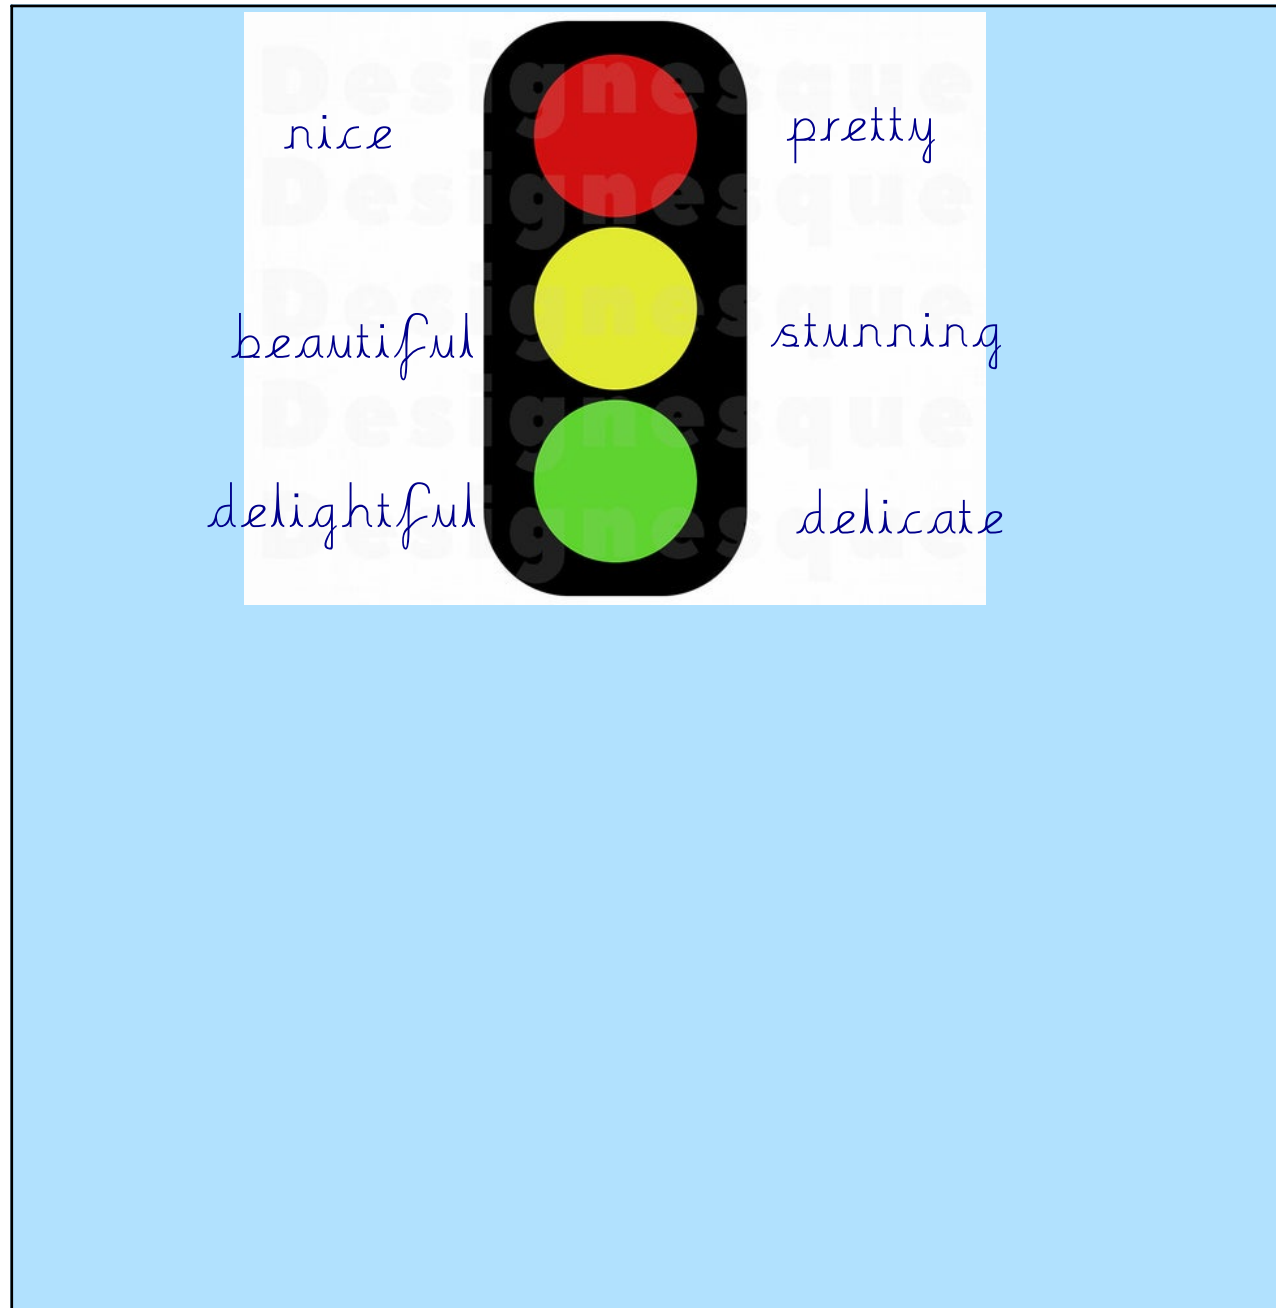

What would you hope for?

Pretend that you are the panda and tell someone what you are thinking. What are your hopes and dreams.

My greatest dream is that soon, there will be lots of newly planted bamboo
for me to eat.

Your task:

Choose one of the animals from the story.

Write in the thought bubble what their hopes and dreams are.

What things would really change their lives for the better?

Don't forget to include some interesting vocabulary.

Don't forget to make sure you achieve the WILF when completing your work and our non-negotiables.

*Capital letters, full stops and finger spaces.

*Neat handwriting

*Careful spellings

I'm looking forward to reading what the animals' dreams are.
