W.A.L.T: To use statements, commands,
exclamations and questions for effect.

W.I.L.F

* I can use a range of different sentence types, correctly punctuated with question marks, exclamation marks and full stops.

 I can use a range of different sentence types, correctly punctuated.

 I can check my work for punctuation mistakes.

What could this animal be?

We don't know what it is yet so let's see if anyone else knows by creating a missing poster.

It's important that we use as much detail for description so that others might know what it is.

furry	smooth	tall	dangerous
feathered	lumpy	bulky	timid
scaly	rough	wide	bold
		small	scary
		thin	friendly
		stocky	clumsy

Statement: A piece of information- a fact.
e.g A animal with a webbed footprint.

Command: An instruction to do something. (Includes an imperative/bossy verb.)
e.g Help us now.

Question: Start with a question word, ends with a question mark and requires an answer.
e.g Have you seen a creature like this?

Exclamation: Starts with 'how' or 'what' and exclaims something surprising. Can end with an exclamation mark. Does not require an answer.
e.g What a mystery this is!

MISSING

What a mystery this is!

An animal with webbed footprints which we believe has smooth feathers and a beak. Judging by the size of its footprints we think it is a relatively large animal.

Have you seen a creature like this?

Help us now.

Your task:

Using the adjectives we looked at, create your own missing poster for the animal whose footprints we don't know what it is.

You must include an exclamation, question and command sentence as well as statements describing the creature. Make sure that you use the correct punctuation for each type of sentence.

I look forward to reading your missing posters.

Don't forget to make sure you achieve the WILF when completing your work and our non-negotiables.

*Capital letters, full stops and finger spaces.

*Neat handwriting

*Careful spellings

Make sure that you check your punctuation.

What does an exclamation need?

A question?

A command?

Any questions please message me on Class Dojos!
