W.A.L.T: To write my own version of Lila and the Secret of Rain.

Yesterday we changed some key features of the original story and planned our own version.

Today we're going to write it, trying hard to include the key skills we've learnt over the past couple of weeks.

W.I.L.F.:

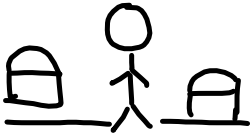

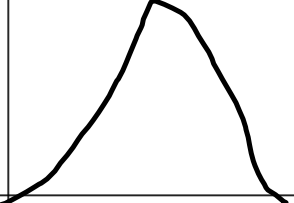

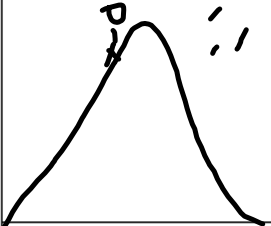

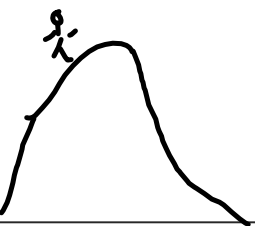

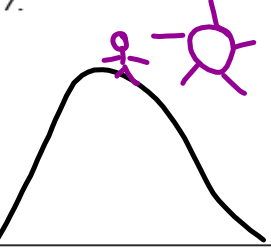

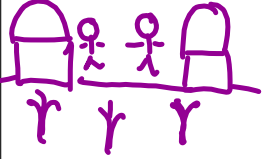

I can use sequencing adverbs.

I can use descriptive detail.

I can use a question.

I can use apostrophes for possession.

	Original	New Version
Character	Lila	Sunni
Setting	Small Kenyan Village	Masai Village
Problem	No rain	Too much rain
Why a problem?	too hot crops dead no water in well	too wet crops dead

Modelled Write

Many years ago in a small Masai village on the Kenyan savannah there lived a young girl called Sunni. Sunni was usually a very happy and cheerful child but for the previous few weeks she had become extremely sad and tearful.

The crops of beans and sweet potato had all died because there had been heavy rain bent the trees and constant massive downpours which had flooded the ground. The villagers in Sunni's village usually wanted rain but this was too much and for too long.

Your task:

To use your story board to write your own version of Lila and the Secret of Rain.

I look forward to reading your stories.

Don't forget to make sure you achieve the WILF when completing your work and our non-negotiables.

*Capital letters, full stops and finger spaces.

*Neat handwriting

*Careful spellings

NOT NEGOTIABLE

I will show a good example of someone's story at the beginning of the first lesson back after the holidays.

Any questions please message me on Class Dojos!
