W.A.L.T: To recreate pointillist art and look at the work of pointillist artists such as Seurat.

W.I.L.F: I can explain what pointillism is.

I can use 2Paint a Picture to create my own art based upon this style.

Georges Seurat

Paul Signac

The image shows the Purple Mash interface. At the top, there is a row of icons: a purple 'purple mash' logo, a red checkmark, an orange notepad, a green bar chart, a globe, a green graduation cap, a blue gear, a blue speech bubble with a question mark, and a purple bell. Below these icons is a horizontal menu with the following items: Home (black), 2Dos (red), Work (orange), Data (green), Sharing (light green), Teachers (teal), Admin (blue), Help (dark blue), and Alerts (purple). Below the menu is a purple header bar with a white left arrow and the text 'Home/Art'. Underneath this is a light purple section titled 'Art Tools & Projects:'. This section contains five rounded rectangular boxes, each with an icon and a label: 1. An icon of a film strip with four colored segments (purple, red, yellow, orange) and the label '2Animate'. 2. An icon of an open book with a green pencil and the label '2Create a Story'. 3. An icon of a red car and a red crane and the label '2Design and Make'. 4. An icon of four stacked markers (red, orange, yellow, green) and the label '2Paint'. 5. An icon of a paint tube with a brush and the label '2Paint A Picture'.
