

I can solve a riddle. (use decoding skills)

Read each riddle and then decide what animal is being described. Write the answer in the space.

What am I?

I have pink skin.

I like to play in the mud.

I live on a farm.

My tail is short and curly. I have a nose called a snout.

I make an oink sound.

I am a _____

What am I?

I live in the jungle.

I have very sharp teeth and claws.

I can run very fast.

I hunt other animals to eat.

I am a kind of big cat.

I have orange fur and black stripes.

I am a _____

What am I?

I am a kind of insect.

I have 8 legs.

Some people are frightened of me.

I eat flies.

I spin a web.

I am a _____

What am I?
I live in cold places.
I have thick white fur.
I look very cuddly but really I am quite fierce.
I am a kind of bear.

I am a _____

What am I?
I am a cheeky chap.
I am brown and furry and sometimes have a long tail.
I like to swing through trees.
My favourite food is bananas.

I am a _____

What am I?
I live in the sea.
I am not a fish.
I have legs called tentacles.
Some people eat me.
I am not a kind of pet.

I am a _____

What am I?
I can be a pet.
I like to go for a walk and play with a ball.
I don't like cats.
I make a woof sound.
There are lots of different kinds of me.

I am a _____

What am I?
I live in your garden.
I have no legs.
I live under the soil.
I am brown and wiggly.

I am a _____

What am I?
I like to swim on top of the water.
I have feathers and a beak.
I can fly.
I lay eggs.
I make a quack noise.
People sometimes give me bread.

I am a _____