

20th May 2020

Hello Terrific Tigers,

I've really enjoyed looking at all the wonderful things that you've posted to the ClassDojo site, especially the videos. It's lovely to see some of your faces again.

If things were normal, this would be your Spring Bank Holiday and as you have been working so hard at home, I am not setting any learning activities for this week. Obviously, if there are things that you would like to do, you can and you can still post things to our Dojo site.

Instead, try being creative this week. Again, I'm not going to set anything as I don't know what things you have at home but just have some fun. I think I'm going to keep a photo diary of this holiday so that in the future I can look back at this time and remember what the spring of 2020 was like and how different it was. You could go on a walk and take photographs of things that you see and turn them into a collage or a picture story of your walk.

Most of all, just have fun! Stay kind to each other and safe.

Mrs Duck
