

My Dragon

My dragon has green skin with scales like a crocodile, bumpy and rough.

My dragon has a long tail that he swishes from side to side like a dog wagging its tail.

My dragon has sharp teeth that can tear his food into tiny pieces but he doesn't use them on people!

My dragon has huge wings that flap like a humming bird so that he can hover at my window.

My dragon has a wonderful laugh when I tickle his belly but fire comes out as he giggles.

I think everyone should have a dragon.
My mum doesn't agree!
