

fish

birds

amphibians

mammals

reptiles

invertebrates

These animals breathe using gills and live in water.

These animals live on land and in water. They have moist skin and lay eggs.

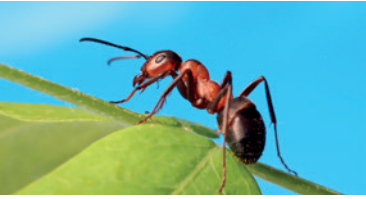

These animals are cold blooded and use the sun to heat themselves. They have scaly skin and lay eggs.

These animals have feathers and lay eggs. They are warm blooded creatures.

These are warm blooded animals and have hair or fur. They make milk to feed their young.

These animals do not have a backbone.

ant

octopus

worm

salmon

shark

clownfish

frog

newt

salamander

crocodile

tortoise

iguana

blackbird

parrot

emu

gorilla

zebra

hedgehog

